I received delivery on a 1970 T100C a couple of weeks ago. I have already started ordering parts. This is a bike I am looking to first make rideable and then I will get to the complete restoration. My 92 yr old Dad is advising me in working on the bike. He started racing in 48 on a 47 AJS. It's a project for both of us.

The beautifully presented and very well built 1967 Triumph T100 offered here was built by a capable enthusiast over about a year. Starting with a 1967 T100C frame, which was powdercoated along with the rest of the cycle parts, and fitted with a Daytona twin carb 500cc engine from April of 1970 build, arguably the best year of the engine.
