the past." Also it might mean that the best way to understand the nature of art is to understand its connections to ritual. These, by implication, are more important than art's connection to, say, self-expression.

Aesthetics Today: What is the relation between ritual and art?

Myth and ritual are two central components of religious practice.

Although myth and ritual are commonly united as parts of religion, the exact relationship between them has been a matter of controversy among scholars. One of the approaches to this problem is "the myth and ritual, or myth-ritualist, theory," held notably by the so-called Cambridge Ritualists, which holds that "myth does not
