Amos, another golden retriever also rescued and adopted by us in 2005, was caught in a love/hate relationship with Trooper. But still, we'll make room for the puppies. The six puppies were divided among 3 foster homes. We took 3 of them - two girls and a boy, bringing our total fostered dogs to 29 since 2002.

I love my dogs, rabbits, and am interested in anything to do with training/ behavior and computers. Salsa is my reactive 3 year old golden that is currently my agility project. I have been through a lot of problems with her so being able to do agility is a big accomplishment. Taco is my 5 year old golden who is pretty much the polar opposite of ...

One of the many things I love about our flat is the light. Our windows face north-west, which means that in the afternoons the whole flat is bathed in soft, slanting golden beams that illuminate the dust and my imperfect paintwork. From March through early October the light reaches around doorways and

The small town of Chapel Hill has a few interesting spots also, if you are a hiker, you'd love our state park Henry Horton. There you will find hiking trail and nature walks. Duck River also runs through the park for fishing or swimming. We also have a sonic, a subway and like all small towns... a lot of farm land.
