Ghetto at the Center of the World Quotes Showing 1-1 of 1. “This, then, is the global significance of Chungking Mansions. It is a building of the periphery within a city of the core, a city located between the developing world's manufacturing hub and its poorest nether regions. It is a ghetto of middle-class striving within a city of wealthier middle-class striving, viewing its denizens with fear and scorn yet letting business as usual be the law of the day.

Ghetto at the Center of the World Quotes by Gordon Mathews

Ghetto at the Center of the World (hereafter Ghetto) is, in its author Gordon Matthews' own words, a bit peculiar: it serves as an anthropological study not of a particular society, but of a particular building. But Chungking Mansions (hereafter CKM), the building in question, is worthy of study not because it is a building.
