A Feminist Critical Study of Girish Karnad's Naga- Mandala

In Naga-mandala, Karnad not only exposes male chauvinism, the oppression of women, the great injustice done to them by patriarchal culture and men, but also overtly deflates the concept of chastity that undergirds the patriarchal mythic imagination across religion and language. As Ramanujan notes, myths and folk tales in a patriarchal society represent primarily the male unconscious fears and wishes and are patriarchal constructs and, in this sense, 'man-oriented.'
