One of the common approaches to the ACT is to take the exam in the second half of your junior year (February, April, May, or June). If you don't get good ACT scores from that test, you have time to prepare further and then retake the exam at the beginning of your senior year (July, September, or October). Be careful with the December test date: you'll want to make sure the scores will be available in time to meet all of your application deadlines.
