Face Mask for Coronavirus: Types, Best Filters, How to Make

Step 1, Inflate a balloon. Avoid blowing it up too much or else it may pop. The size of the balloon will be the size of your mask. For smaller children, a smaller balloon will be easier to work with. Step 2, Gather and create the materials needed for your papier mâché. It's fine if you just have newspaper, but it's even better if you have newspaper and a solid paper, like printer paper. Grab a whole bunch of sheets and some flour and water for your paste. Rip the papers into strips or ...
