The belonging measures are then used as predictors of performance in General Chemistry 1 and 2 and attrition from one semester to the next. Paralleling research in other STEM disciplines, the results show that female students, especially those from underrepresented minority groups, reported lower belonging and higher uncertainty than male students within the first weeks of the course.

Operational level and performance in the General Chemistry course Final grade in General Chemistry for students of different operational level was analyzed. Results indicate that this grade differed significantly by operational level; both for the first semester of the course, $\chi^2(8, N = 466) = 52.89, p < .001$, as well as for the second semester, $\chi^2(8, N = 466) = 52.48, p < .001$.
