The point of the God-shaped hole, interestingly enough, is that only God can fill it. A word of warning: once you discover the truth of this phenomenon, your life will most likely be thereafter consumed with the burning desire to fill it the right way, right away, and this process is pretty much going to take up your whole life. Thanks to the good people who've figured this out, we are surrounded by a living, active God, at work in the world and residing in those watchful, open hearts.
