It acts as a memory and can also act as an automatic thinking and acting machine that is programmed to take over if the Chimp or Human is asleep or if they allow it to run ahead of them with preformed decisions and beliefs that it can act with.

The Chimp Model - Chimp Management | Chimp Management

The paradox is that we need our chimp – for basic survival instincts, for example – but if we don't have a plan to manage it, and let it run our lives, it can be catastrophic.
