Who Was Louis Armstrong

The Jazz Institute of Chicago celebrates the centennial of the great Satchmo's years in Chicago with a concert June 10 at Columbus Park Refectory.

100 years ago, Louis Armstrong arrived in Chicago. What happened next would change jazz forever.

But he sang a Broadway showtune, and everything changed. By 1964, Armstrong's career in music had lasted nearly 50 years; he'd started playing in brass bands on New Orleans riverboats in 1918.
